TAFTVILLE

Anticipating one of the best outings in the history of the club, since its organization twenty-seven years ago, the Pompano Wharf club outing committee have completed all arrangements for the annual picnic at the famous "King" George Jacques, the famous East Willoughby caterer, to serve one of his most noted stand clam bakes at Woodford park on Sunday, Aug. 20. The picnic program, as mapped out by the committee is as follows: All members will assemble at the clubhouse on Nor- wich avenue, not later than 8.30 a. m., where a photograph will be on hand to take a picture of the boys in front of their club rooms. Each member will wear a special headgear adapted to the event. Twenty-five autos will fall in line for the ride to Woodford park, and each machine will be decorated. All cars will travel together from the time they leave the Wharf Club until they arrive at the park. On arrival, several events will take place, such as the annual ball game between the married men and the single men, a tug of war, relay race, three-legged race, fat men's race, shoe race, novelty race with pipe and tobacco around the bases, 100 yard dash and quizz. Prizes will be awarded to all the winners. The following approximate bill of fare will be prepared by "King" George Jacques: Dinner, 12

BOUND OVER FOR ATTEMPT TO BRIBE STATE POLICE OFFICERS

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Danielson, Aug. 8.—When presented in Justice Burdett's court at Jewett City Tuesday afternoon, Charles Taylor and Thomas Walsh, drivers of the beer trucks that were seized near Jewett City Monday, were released under bonds of $500 each for a hearing to be held Friday.
A bondman who appeared laid a $1,000 bill on the justice's desk as bail. At Plainfield Barnett C. Hart was arraigned on a charge of attempted bribery of State Policemen Albert E. Field and Merrill R. Keith. He pleaded not guilty before Justice Matthews and was bound over to the next term of the superior court under bonds of $5,000, which will be furnished through a surety company.
Hart was being held at the state police barracks late Tuesday night awaiting an adjustment of the bond. The two trucks that figured in the seizure will be released tomorrow and the drivers will take them back to New York. The 200 cases of beer stored at the state police barracks here. An analysis of the beer made Tuesday at Hartford shows the alcoholic content to be 5.7 per cent. The attention of the state policemen was attracted to the truck carrying the liquor by the manner in which they were carrying the trucks. Believing the trucks to be overloaded, they signalled the drivers to stop. It was then they investigated waited through space from hundreds of miles away. Owing to poor atmospheric conditions which prevailed Monday evening, the weather being rainy and cloudy, the demonstration was not very satisfactory, but Taftville has a few radio fans of its own who believed that the apparatus was not working in as good order as it should be. By following up clues and wires, they discovered that something was going on in the St. Louis casino on Dion street, a few hundred feet in the rear of the theater where the demonstration was being held. A crowd gathered on Dion street, and the word went quickly round that a sounding machine was in operation in the Casino equipped with a graphophone or some other machine devised for the reproduction of instrumental music, and it was this machine that the crowd believed was the military band that was playing hundreds of miles away. Probably the demonstration was genuine and the company actually had connections with actual sending stations in other states, but popular opinion is that the music was manufactured at close range. One man who gathered admittance to the casino, (although when a large crowd had gathered, the doors were barred) said that the music inside the building was deafening, and he believed it was being reproduced in the hall and not being picked up by radio. The company's arrival was advertised extensively, but their demonstration was far from satisfactory, especially to a number of residents, who have perfect working radios in their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fontaine of Hunters avenue are spending a few weeks with relatives in St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, Canada.
John Krumbholz and William Shek were recent visitors to Oakland beach, making the trip by motor.
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fogarty of Norwich avenue have moved to South Second avenue, to make their home with Mrs. Fogarty.

Jesse Pagan, chief engineer in the U. S. N. and stationed at the submarine base, Groton, has been transferred to the Brooklyn navy yard, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Pagan and small son left town Tuesday to make their home in Brooklyn.
Dr. David Quaker of North A street is spending a few days with relatives in New York.
Raymond Girard of Prairie avenue has returned from a two weeks' motor trip in Canada.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thane of South A street are spending a few weeks in St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, Canada.
Miss Rose Murphy of South A street has returned from a visit of several days with friends in Waterbury, Conn.
Monday was radio night at a local theater, when a traveling company appeared in a big radio act, lecturing on the wonders of this new discovery, and demonstrating how music could be taken from the air, when sent from receiving stations at Brooklyn, Mass., Springfield, Mass., and Philadelphia, Pa. During the day, the electricians of this company strung wires, and antennae in numerous places in the hill factory, sections, and a great crowd was on hand to listen to the band concerts

Thomas Greenwood, Mrs. Fogarty's father, John Warden of Norwich avenue, who has been spending some time in Manchester, N. H., has returned to his home here.
Mrs. Ellen Freeman Topliff died Monday at her home in South Coventry. She was the mother of Frederick Topliff of Occum Heights, Occum, Conn.
Arthur Arnold of Providence, R. I., was a business caller in the village on Tuesday.
Miss Emma L'Houveau of Willimantic spent a short time in town recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeClair have returned from a stay of two months in Quebec, Canada.

Under the heading, Taftville Now on Top of Reas, the Hartford Courant says: Taftville in winning over the American Thread A. A. team Sunday, at the local park, climbed into the lead in the Eastern Connecticut Baseball league. This puts the Thread Makers into third place. New London bumped the Danielson outfit plenty, 17 to 7, and slid into second place. Battle taking the place of the Moose team sprung a surprise on Jewett City, winning 3 to 1. Games to be played Saturday, August 12, Willimantic at Taftville; Sunday, August 13, Battle at Jewett City, New London at Danielson. The standing: Taftville 667, New London 660, Willimantic 577, Jewett City 577, Battle 388, Danielson 286.
Notices have been placed on the gates of the Pompano Mills stating that the property is protected by a Boston detective agency.
Ernest Cusson has accepted a position with the Pompano company.
Custave Hedler of Fifth avenue, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to return to his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bianchetti have taken a house on South B street.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barantashin of South B street are moving out of town. Fred Ray, who has been ill at his home on South C street for several weeks, is improved, and has been able to return to his work.
Master Theodore Alard has been ill at his home on South B street.
Miss Elizabeth Jackson of North B street is enjoying her annual vacation.
Miss Dorothy Bronington of Blissett street has resigned her position with the J. B. Martin Company.

Two athletes were required to close the wounds caused by a dog biting Albert F. Lambert, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Lambert of North A street, last Sunday. The child is fast recovering, and it is believed that no serious results will follow.
Miss Marie Vincent of Providence street is having her annual vacation.
Benches have been placed along Norwich avenue between Providence street and South B street, for the mill employees.
Master Donald of South B street is fast recovering from illness caused by the removal of a growth from his face. Work is rapidly progressing on the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trenger on Waverley avenue.
Mrs. John Mather of North A street has been a recent visitor at Oakland beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hande have taken a house on North Third avenue.
Orville Larche has disposed of his property in Occum to Johanna Welch and Josephine Phillips.
Frank Zarusk has left town.
Mr. and Mrs. George Tourtelotte and children, of Norwich, were recent guests of Mrs. Victoria Plante of Norwich avenue.

It is noted at Hartford that Mrs. James H. Brexter is at Pomfret Center for a few weeks.

GYPSIES LEAVE FAIRGROUNDS FOR NEW LOCATION
The band of gypsies which located on the fairgrounds of the New London County Agricultural Society at East Great Plain moved Tuesday to the land owned by Henry Lathrop opposite Ford's ice house. Although the band could not state definitely it is understood that they will remain in Norwich for two or three months longer. They have copper work sufficient to carry them along for a much longer time.
In leaving the fairgrounds it is reported that the property was left in exactly as good order as when they moved onto it on June 26th. In fact, there have been no complaints of their actions in this city aside from a few remarks about their method of living.
The gypsies claim that Norwich is a good territory for their business and that they expect several orders before leaving.

In leaving the fairgrounds Tuesday the band has lived up to its agreement. At the fair association, in fact the band has lived up to all recommendations shown here that they had received in other cities, from police departments and mayors of cities in which they have done copper work.

POETRY
THE ROSE OF JOY
Down the garden paths I wandered,
Searching for the Rose of Joy,
Nature lavishly had squandered
Colors—red, gold, blue and grey.
Crimson, pink and beautiful white,
Scarlet, dark as midnight skies—
Creamy petals a gleaming light,
Like an art-renewed sunrise.
(But I would know you, Rose of Roses,
From out the garden's fairest flowers,
I'd call you from amongst the posies,
That whiled away a hundred hours.)
Homeward I turned, with lagging feet,
Retraced my steps mid fragrance rare;
Behold, a flower small and sweet,
The Rose of Joy was blooming there!
—C. A. Pinckney.

FROM A CAR WINDOW
Pines, and a blur of little young grasses:
Gold on a pool, from the western glow;
Spread of wings where the last thrush
passes—
And thoughts of you as the sun dips
low.
Quiet lane, and an arched meadow * * *
(How many summers have died since
I wish you knew how the deepening shadow
Lies—blue and blue and green again!
Dusk, and the curve of field and hollow
Echoes a gray when an after story;
Sunset * * * twilight * * * and dark to follow * * *
And thoughts of you thro' a mist of tears. —Ruth Guthrie Harding.

HUMOR OF THE DAY
